SCANDAL IN THE OAKLAND POST OFFICE.

Charges of Shortage Are Denied By Postmaster Friend.

Post Office Inspectors Censure the Office--Quarrel Between Alexander and Friend.

There is a rattling row in progress in the Oakland postoffice between Postmaster W. H. Friend and Assistant Postmaster Charles O. Alexander.

As a result of this bitter quarrel, the Postoffice Inspectors have sent an adverse report to Washington on the Oakland postoffice.

Two inspectors examined the Oakland office last Wednesday.

They found the work badly behind, and disharmony in the ranks.

Alexander's work was all tied up, and he was badly behind.

Postmaster Friend says Alexander is the cause of all the trouble.

Mr. Friend asserts that Alexander's bad work has caused him, Friend, to be heavily censured in Washington.

There are rumors of all kinds of disturbances in the postoffice.

It is war to the knife and the knife to the hilt.

Rumors of shortages are current on the street.

Alexander says his accounts are all right.

Friend says his accounts are all right.

The Postoffice Inspectors have sent a sensational report to Washington.

The knowing ones say that when the report reaches Washington something is going to drop.

"Is there a shortage in the Oakland Postoffice, Mr. Friend?" asked a Tribune reporter.

"No, sir."

"Are your accounts straight?"

"Yes, sir."

"Are Alexander's accounts straight?"

"Yes, as far as I know."

"Has an adverse report been made by the Inspectors on your office?"

"Well," continued Postmaster Friend, "I will tell you the story as far as I know it."

"I understand that the Inspectors have sent an adverse report to Washington and I suppose I am to get the blame."

"That is what makes me mad."

"I am not to blame. Alexander is the one at fault. He is the cause of all the trouble."

"I have had a fearful quarrel with him. I have fought and fought with him to try and get him to keep up with his work but he would not do it."

"The inspectors came here and found his work all behind and of course there was trouble."

"This is the first time in my life I have ever been called down in any of my work. It breaks my heart."

"What did Alexander do or say when you quarreled with him about his work?"

"He acted like a Chinaman," replied Mr. Friend.

"Have you heard any complaints from outside about Alexander?"

"Some intimations of his gambling and drinking have come to me. I did not investigate these reports. I saw that the money in the safe was all right. The fact is that Mr. Alexander is still at his desk and holds the keys to the safe. However, he has given me no end of trouble. I am wild on his account."

"His work has brought me into all this trouble. I don't know where it will end. The plain fact is I cannot make Alexander do his duty. He will go out of the office and be gone for hours at a time, and will not give me any explanation. These things are the cause of the rumors on the street."

An employee of the Postoffice stated that there was a shortage in the office but the amount has been made good.

Postmaster Friend denies that there is a shortage.

WILL RENEW THE ALLIANCE

ROME, Nov. 1.—It is announced here that it is certain that King Humbert and Emperor William will meet shortly, and that the interview will be of great political importance to the Italian and German governments, which have already agreed to renew the treaty of alliance.

The Emperor, it is added, is also urging Emperor Francis Joseph to visit King Humbert.

BATTLE STILL GOES ON AT LADYSMITH.

Gen. White's Men Fighting Cheerfully and Boer Guns Are Silenced With Heavy Loss to Enemy.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Nov. 1.—It was announced today in a special dispatch from Ladysmith that the Boers again closed around that place on Monday night, sending shells into the British camp. The two guns landed from the British cruiser Powell opened fire on the Boers at dawn Tuesday. The Boers brought up more guns, but some of them were silenced. It is added that the Boers' loss must have been heavy.

The garrison of Ladysmith is described as being in good spirits and confident, and the troops are said to be full of fight. The artillery and was still in progress Tuesday night.

SILENCED THE BOER GUNS.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 26.—(Delayed in Transmission).—Guns of the British naval brigade have silenced the Boer forty-pounder guns off its platform and have silenced the Boer guns on Hopworth Hill. The Boers abandoned their positions.

ASKS FOR MEDIATION.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The Tagblatt says Count Bothmeyer, president of the German peace societies, has telegraphed to Queen Victoria praying for the mediation of the United States in the war with the Transvaal.

CABINET IN CONFERENCE WITH LORD WOLSELEY

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Cabinet meeting today was exceptionally brief, but afterward the defense committee of the Cabinet, consisting of the Duke of Devonshire, A. J. Balfour, the Marquis of Lansdowne, and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, met at the Foreign Office, and held a long conference with the Commander-in-Chief of the forces, Field Marshal Lord Wolseley.

INQUIRY ON BOER LOSSES.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 1.—Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal, has received the consent of the Secretary of State for War, the Marquis of Lansdowne, to allow a telegram to be sent to Pretoria to ask the number of killed and wounded on the side of the Boers.

FOUGHT TILL AMMUNITION WAS ALL GONE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. "At 3 P. M. our ammunition was exhausted, the position was captured, and the survivors of the column fell into the enemy's hands. The enemy treated our wounded with humanity. General Joubert at once dispatching a letter to me offering a safe conduct to doctors and ambulances to remove the wounded. A medical officer and ambulance to render first aid to the wounded were dispatched to the scene of action from Ladysmith last night, and the ambulance at dawn this morning.

"The want of success of the column was due to the misfortune of the mules carrying the ammunition being captured, and the guns and the small arm ammunition reserve.

"The official list of casualties and prisoners will be reported shortly. The latter are understood to have been sent by rail to Pretoria.

"The security of Ladysmith is in no way affected."

DISASTER NOT SO BLACK AS FIRST FEARED.

The gloom by the British disaster at Ladysmith was in a measure relieved by today's story giving an account of the heroic stand made by the beleaguered garrison until their last cartridges were gone.

The British nerve was momentarily shaken by General White's use of the word "catastrophe" in his first telegram, but now that it is known that the Gloucesters and Buffs fought against overwhelming odds and upheld the traditions of the British army, the tension has been relieved, since there is no ground to dread that the loss of life was accompanied by dishonor. The details today show the catastrophe in a brighter aspect. The full battalions were not engaged, and therefore the list of prisoners is materially reduced, while the disaster now appears to have been not so much the consequence of defeat in the action of action as to a misfortune whereby the column was deprived of its ammunition. Still, it seems inconceivable that the plight of the luckless column was not known at headquarters, as the scene of the surrender was only about three miles southwest of Ladysmith and Lieutenant Colonel Carleton must have expected the relief to reach him, or instead of attempting to occupy a defensive position, he would have retraced his steps to Ladysmith, when he suffered the loss of his ammunition.

BRITISH LOSSES UNKNOWN.

Apart from General White's statement that the losses are very numerous, there is nothing to indicate the extent of them except a vague report that the soldier who brought the news to Ladysmith said the British dead and wounded were lying in heaps and that hundreds needed doctors. This, however, is hardly true, but by the long list of captured officers.

The concluding sentence of General White's dispatch, relative to the safety of Ladysmith, was received here with certain reserve, in view of the fact that similar official assurances were given recently at Dundee and Glenageary, and there is intense anxiety for the renewed attack which is now mentioned in the dispatches.

The calamity has served to alarm the British and their friends, and has brought out the splendid reserve of patriotism existing in the far-away colonies and the deep-seated feeling of friendship and sympathy of the great kindred nation across the Atlantic.

ENGLAND'S ONLY FRIEND.

The Standard sums up the feeling of the nation, saying: "From the United States our colonies alone have heard the voice of friendly sorrow and encouragement. But that suffices. All others are welcome to congratulate themselves over the misfortunes of Great Britain."

The War Office has made a welcome concession to the public desire for news. Hereafter every postoffice will be open Sunday morning and will post copies of all telegrams received by the War Office up to 1 A. M. Sunday.

It was learned today by a representative of the Associated Press that the British Government has been obliged to refuse to permit the United States to send four officers to watch the Transvaal war, owing to the preparations which only permits one representative from each

LIPTON GETS A GRAND GODSPEED

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Sir Thomas Lipton sailed today for his home. He received a surprising tribute of the esteem in which he is held by the St. Louis and a series of triumphal marches through the city. He also received word of the presentation of the loving cup, which was accepted by Sir Thomas and his family. Sir Thomas and a few friends left the Fifth Avenue Hotel at 8:30 o'clock to go to the Astor House to meet the loving cup.

When the Astor House was reached the Eighth Regiment band was in waiting with some of the members of the committee, and the band played a series of triumphal marches. The party remained but a few minutes at the hotel. The band, followed by the carriage, started off down Broadway playing a lively air.

"All the way to the pier Sir Thomas got a reception that surprised him. People lined up on the sidewalks and cheered him, and many rushed out to shake hands as his carriage slowly passed.

LABORING MEN LOVE HIM.

At Washington Market a lot of market men, who were waiting for the carriage, and stopped the carriage, making Sir Thomas shake hands with them.

He was soon surrounded by longshoremen, the poorest of whom, and vendors, and Sir Thomas smiled as he shook hands right and left. Both of his hands were shaking many women. At the banquet platform was a floral representation of the Shamrock with hull of immortelles and sails of white silk. The sea was made of white and red roses, and the vessel was four feet long. At the head of the vessel was a flag of the Royal Yacht Club.

When Sir Thomas and the others had ascended the platform Mayor Strong, president of the loving cup committee, signed for Sir Thomas and George M. Beach, one of the committee, formally advised Sir Thomas of the loving cup that is to be presented to him, adding that he and every one else trusted that Sir Thomas would soon return.

DESTRUCTION OF A POWER HOUSE

The Standard Electric Plant at Blue Lakes Burned.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

STOCKTON, Nov. 1.—The power house of the Standard Electric Company, located at Blue Lakes, Cal., was totally destroyed by fire this morning about 5 o'clock.

The Standard Electric Company, the company, made the following statement to the Associated Press:

"The power house of the Standard Electric Company, located at Blue Lakes, Cal., was totally destroyed by fire this morning about 5 o'clock. At present the origin of the fire is unknown. It will be some weeks before operations can be resumed. In the meantime the Stockton Gas and Electric Company will supply its customers by means of its reserve steam plant."

(Signed.)

"A. H. BABCOCK, Superintendent."

A telephone message was received by the Mail from the Blue Lakes plant early in the afternoon.

"No one seems to know how the fire started," stated the Mail's informant.

"It broke out in the machinery department at a quarter of 5 this morning, continued for four hours. There is a good water supply here, and there were plenty of hands to use it, but water will not extinguish electricity. The fire had to be fought with the machinery itself, which was in operation at the time."

"The only loss in Stockton by the destruction of the plant is the Speer Flour Company, which received power to run the Speer Flour mill direct from Blue Lakes. About 5 o'clock this morning the machinery began to glow, and soon it stopped altogether."

"The mill will be unable to run until the plant is rebuilt. It is rebuilt as the steam plant has been taken out."

"It requires 500 horse power to operate the mill. The plant is a small one, but has been closed down for ten days, undergoing a general overhauling, will be started up at once."

"No one was injured. The plant is a small one, but has been closed down for ten days, undergoing a general overhauling, will be started up at once."

NEWS FROM THE ISLANDS.

Secretary Hay Calls Down the Hawaiian Government.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—The steamer Oscar arrived here last night from Honolulu, and brings the following news from Honolulu under date of October 23rd:

The first and most important refers to the claims of British and other residents for damages for transportation during the rebellion of 1895. Disclosed with the communication is the opinion of Attorney General Griggs in relation to the matter.

The merit of the claims is acknowledged. No individual cases are particularly specified. It is recommended that the local government make settlement of some sort satisfactory to the parties.

The second letter, and one of great importance, is in relation to Minister Dole's trip to Italy. This comes directly from the Secretary of State to Special Agent.

It is understood that the United States Government disapproves of the mission of Mr. Dole.

Minister Dole left here some months ago to enlist in Italy laborers for the plantations, or rather to open the way for drawing on the northern provinces of that country for a portion of the field labor required here.

The third letter was in relation to the title of the Minister of Foreign Affairs. The Washington Government rules that the point is well taken, and that the office may continue under its old title.

The successor to Minister King has not been appointed as yet. The choice lies between Alexander Young and Henry E. Cooper. The present Minister is General.

The steamer ship Charles City has arrived from the Orient with 702 Japanese laborers on board. The vessel will proceed to the Hawaiian Islands.

The United States steamer Newark arrived from San Francisco this morning on her way to join Admiral Watson's fleet at Manila. The cruiser will remain in port about three days.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER DONE

Chicago Woman Found With a Bullet in Her Heart.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mrs. J. Rush Branch was found dead last night in her apartment on the first floor of No. 176 Forty-second street, with a bullet in her heart. It is believed the body had lain in the flat more than a week. Finger prints and smeared bloodstains were found on the wall beside the body and a revolver was found under a chair lying on a bed in Mrs. Branch's room.

Five weeks ago Mrs. Branch moved her household furniture into the building. She was alone, but she told the janitor, Frank Stromsen, her husband was a traveling salesman and was out of town. The janitor believes to be her husband's visit.

Sunday morning, October 22, Mrs. Branch called Stromsen in to fix a gas jet. While the janitor was at work a strange man sat with his back to him, and neither spoke nor turned his head.

The daily papers were piled on the back porch up to and including that day. A number of letters were found in the apartment, some of them indicating that she had been leading a dual existence. At least half of the letters were addressed to Mrs. Mabel Downs, although she said to have been the recipient of them in none of them was the address of the writer given. One of the letters written in Montreal, October 21, the preliminary was unsigned, was signed "Your Husband."

MERCHANTS ARE READY TO FIGHT.

Do Not Like Lafayette
Park for a Library
Site.

The directors of the Merchants' Exchange held a meeting last evening and adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, It has been proposed to remove the Chabot observatory from its present location to make room for the proposed new library building; and

"Whereas, The proposed removal would be a great detriment to the observatory and a great expense to the City of Oakland; and

"Whereas, The placing of the observatory in an interior location would be an insult to the memory of Anthony Chabot, the generous donor of the observatory in its present location; and he has an entered into by the City of Oakland; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Merchants' Exchange hereby protests against the proposed removal, and urges that the new library building be located in some locality other than Lafayette square.

M. V. Witche brought up the matter of the selection of a site for the new library. He said that undoubtedly private interests of some figures in men's opinions as to the site to be selected. It might be well to locate the library on a public square and if there was no one able to be willing to subscribe the purchase of a site. It was not necessary, however, for the city had other public squares.

"Mr. Chabot," said Mr. Witche, "probably gave as liberally of his means in his day as Mr. Carnegie, when he gave the Observatory to Oakland. Members of his family are living here. There is a lack of respect to their feelings and lack of appreciation of Mr. Chabot's generosity. I never heard of anything that was in poorer taste than the proposition to remove the observatory aside, and put the library upon the site that was set apart for the observatory."

"I think that if the gift of Mr. Chabot is treated in the manner proposed, the next man who proposes to do anything for Oakland will go somewhere else."

G. W. Arper said: "I think that the time has come for the Merchants' Exchange to take some action. It seems to me that it is very inconsiderate; it is thoroughly unkind and it is not fair put to one side the generous gift of Anthony Chabot. Oakland is certainly peculiarly constituted. It is one of the quickest cities in the United States. We hear of the lack of public spirit. Yet here is a proposition to offer an affront to the living relatives of one who was generous to the city. I would be willing to have a committee appointed to confer with the Board of Trustees of the Public Library and the Board of the Observatory and they have given proper consideration to this matter."

Mr. Arper said that he had been somewhat surprised by the sudden dignity of some people who thought, according to the papers, that it was beneath the dignity of the city to accept such a gift as the observatory. He said that he was a community and he did not think that there were many individuals who would refuse the princely gift of Mr. Carnegie. To that gentleman should read the criticisms he might conclude that he would withdraw his gift and permit the people of Oakland to amuse themselves with their own eccentricity.

Mr. Arper said that he thought that right, and he thought that it was not to indulge in criticism of the community; at least, not to make it public.
